CHRISTMAS IS A
"FULL" DAY FOR MOST OF US!

ON Christmas day everybody forgets the aches of the past—the warnings of the present—and just eats.

Mary—the supposedly dyspeptic—holds her own with Uncle Willie, the chapsion food punisher, who hasn't been home since a year from last Thanksgiving. Father and the boys do their share.

With all those long distance eaters present, quantity as well as quality must be present. Don't bother about mixtures. Lay in a supply of apples, bon bons, cakes, fruit, candy toys, cheese, grapefruit, jams, jellies, mints, nuts, oranges, pastries, pecans, plum pudding, salted almonds and peanuts.

YOU can find the best places to get all these necessities by reading the Christmas Gift Suggestions Columns in the Bulletin today.

What Is Going On Tonight
Vaudeville and Motion Pictures at Strand Theatre.
Motion Pictures at Broad Theatre.
Motion Pictures at Davis Theatre.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
Sale of Greene Avenue Property.
James L. Case has sold Mrs. Birdie C. Gottlieb of Springfield, Mass. to Joseph Sachs the fine residence property owned by her and located at No. 27 Greene Avenue. The house contains 12 rooms and is on a plot of 12,000 sq. ft. and is 75 by 175 feet. Mrs. Gottlieb purchased the property a little over a year ago intending to make her home here. Conditions prevented her from doing so. The property was formerly owned by the late Joseph D. Haviland. Mr. Sachs will improve the property.

Bender Revue at the Strand.
Yesterday's large enthusiastic audience at the Strand Theatre, before the Christmas, received every one of the four big acts with rounds of applause. Babe Wolman opened the bill with a wonderful vaudeville novelty. He whistles almost every note from a popular ditty to operatic aria.
Bookley and Dunaway literally brought down the house with their fine singing and especially their comedy. Their act is called "The Chicken Chase" and is one of the funniest comedy acts seen in Norwich.
Knowles and White also carried the applause they received, giving their audience many happy changes. Their bright little skit is called "Mr. Plover" and seems to be a very appropriate title.
The Frances Roeder Revue is the only one of its kind ever seen in Norwich. Here you see some exotic dancing with the newest steps and hear a real prima donna sing, who has an excellent soprano voice. Great applause greeted them at the finale.
The featured picture is "Antonio Vercens" in a Vitaphone special, "A Giddy Conclusion."

Big Holiday Bill for the Strand.
Ralph Dunbar's "Tennessee Ten" is the big feature attraction for the Strand for the first half of Christmas week.
The "Tennessee Ten" is an aggregation of unbleached players from way down south in the land of cotton. A musical skit called "Plantation Days" and described as an "Ethiopian episode" was fashioned with the intention of showing the talents and wide variety of these colored performers. In all likelihood, there is no other race so endowed with natural ability and their characteristics as the "Tennessee Ten." It is doubtful if at one time so many really talented comedians, singers and dancers have been gathered together in one group as are found in Mr. Dunbar's "Tennessee Ten." They are back and wing dancers and a real jazzy band with a dancing director, folk songs, as well as more difficult music, a quantity of comedy and a real handsome production.
This is only one of the acts. Three other big acts and a feature picture on the same bill. An unbeatable programme. No advance in prices Christmas matinee or night.

Broad Theatre.
The Old Oaken Bucket, May Tully's screen version of the best loved song of the century, which is the feature at the Broad theatre today and Saturday is the "Tennessee Ten" is an aggregation of unbleached players from way down south in the land of cotton. A musical skit called "Plantation Days" and described as an "Ethiopian episode" was fashioned with the intention of showing the talents and wide variety of these colored performers. In all likelihood, there is no other race so endowed with natural ability and their characteristics as the "Tennessee Ten."
